COLOMBIA GIVES BACK GALA

Date: November 19, 2014

Time: 7:00 PM

Place: New World Center, Miami Beach

Ticket Price: $750 per individual ticket

The evening will begin with welcome cocktails and the silent auction entitled "Colombia Gives Back- Notes of Pride," followed by dinner and a classical music concert by the New World Symphony, America's Orchestral Academy, and students of the Academia Filarmónica de Medellín, and finally, will end in a rooftop after party.

Three years ago, the New World Symphony and one of our local partners, the Academia Filarmónica de Medellín (AFMED) inaugurated a unique collaboration called the "Medellín Music Exchange," a cross-cultural initiative that gives low-income Colombian musicians the opportunity to gain experience in a famous classical music institution, while allowing NWS fellows to grow into their role as musical ambassadors, advocates and engaged teachers.

Give To Colombia has actively supported the AFMED and has seen how this program has been "instrumental" in changing the lives of aspiring musicians in Medellín. At the Colombia Gives Back gala, guests will have the opportunity to witness first-hand this cross-cultural collaboration between fellows of the NWS, America's Orchestral Academy, and the AFMED students of Medellín, two vastly different cultural institutions that have been able to form a unique bond through music.
