Donor Privacy Policy

About Us

Give To Colombia is a U.S. based 501(c)(3) non-profit organization that facilitates the channeling of resources towards high-impact social projects in Colombia and Latin America.

We are committed to protect our donors' personal information and will ensure that the information you provide is kept completely secure. By donating to Give To Colombia, you are accepting the policies described in this donor privacy policy.

Collection of Information

Give To Colombia only saves personal information that is necessary to complete a transaction and for us to communicate back to you. This personal information includes, but is not limited to, first and last name, physical address, email, phone number, and payment details. Please note that if you choose to be an anonymous donor, your personal information will be recorded in our internal records. However, you will remain anonymous to the general public.

Use of Information

Your personal information will be used in order to provide you with a better service. Give To Colombia may use your information:

- For the purposes for which you provided the information, i.e. to process donations.
- To alert you to new projects, site features, special events, and services from Give To Colombia and/or its allies.
- To conduct surveys to measure your satisfaction with our service.

If you wish to opt-out of receiving email and information from Give To Colombia please contact us at info@givetocolombia.org.

Credit Card and Bank Information

Credit card numbers and bank information are used only for payment processing and are not used for any other purpose.

Sharing of information

Give To Colombia will not sell, trade, or share a donor's personal information with anyone else, nor send donor mailings on behalf of other organizations. We will only share personal information if you give us specific permission to do so. If required by law, search warrant, subpoena, court order, or credit card fraud investigation, Give To Colombia may be required to release such personal information.

Security

Give To Colombia maintains the security of your information at all times. Our website uses the Secure Socket Layer (SSL) protocol with 128-bit encryption strength to transmit sensitive information. This is the same technology used in transmitting sensitive information by banks, governments, and online businesses such as Amazon.com and eBay. Once the information is in our system, it is accessible to authorized Give To Colombia personnel only. We strictly enforce our privacy policies with our employees and any breach of this policy will result in termination and the pressing of criminal charges where there are grounds.
